

Course Description – Curriculum 2018

Subject: SW213 Social Change and Social Problems

Credits: 3

Prerequisite: -

Description: Concepts and theories of social change and social problem; roles of institutions in social change and dealing with consequences of change; dynamics of social change and effects on social relation systems and ways of life; social ideologies, social problems, social inclusion; proactive and reactive measures for social change towards social development.