

Education

Bangkok Post

Managers of the future

Thammasat University undergraduate students won the eighth annual 'McGill Management International Case Competition' in March in Montreal, Canada. Contestants had 48 hours to read and analyse a previously undisclosed business case, define and solve the company's key problems, formulate a strategic plan, and make a presentation to a panel of top executives. From left: Nattapon Lertpraival; Visaruth Taveeruchana; Chatree Wangpanitkul; Somboon Kulvisaechana, adviser; and Phornthep Thakral. COURTESY OF KITTIMA SETHI